Dear George,

You and your fellow board members provided a very special evening this week for me, my wife and my IBM colleagues. Most important to me, you very kindly recognized the work and achievement of hundreds of IBM communications professionals and our partners. As I said in my remarks, great work is the product of a great team, and I am part of an extraordinary team at IBM.

Thank you for the recognition and for the elegant and memorable evening. My best to Peter, Lee and Marie and all the other IABC members who helped make the evening special.

Yours,
